CANTON NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent).

Some days ago we reported a case of attempted piracy which was luckily prevented by the timely arrival of H.I.M's gruiser Po Ou. The modus operandi of the pirates has late'y come to light. I appears that one of the crew of the vessel to be plundered was in league with the robbers. Some rice bags had been placed on board and in each was hidden a weapen.

The man found means to distribute these weapons to his accomplices and but for the arrival of the cruiser, there would probably

THE ASSOCIATION ENTERNATIONAL. The Scottish followers of the Socker game are not tender in their criticism of the Scottish team that went to the Crystal Palace to beat England, and came home with a record of two to nothing against them. The different divisions of the team did not knit together, and there was a sad lack of understanding, not only between line and line, but between man and man. It was indeed a pitiful show that the Scotsmen made, and if luck was against them, t has to be confessed they did not merit s great deal of that commodity. Even granted that none of the good things came their way, and that the Englishmen had a pretty fair share of them, there is no getting clear of the fact that the Southerners were in overy respect the superior lot. On neither side, however, was combination a feature; but with the English there were no great individual failures. Where England really had the best of it (according to general opinion) was in speed; the Scots were as farm horses to racehorses,

The two goals of the game were due to OENTRAL, on Lease." blunders on the parts of the Scots. was taken four minutes from kick-off, and the other twelve minutes later. This seems to have disorganised the Northerners. a bit; but a little steadiness in their defence at the critical time might have saved disaster. After the fatal opening minutes, the Scots were pretty often in atshare of the play was in English territory.

THE CUP TIE FINAL.

The Association Cup, that homely but celebrated piece of plate, - was brought to the field at Hampden on Saturday by the representative of the holders, wtapped in a sheet of groy paper, only to be returned to its place of safety at the close of the day unwrapped and unexposed. "The Rangers and the ceitic appeared in what was to be the firml tie, but neither showed themselves the better side, -- two goals each " "The inevitable draw, " was the remark of the Man in the Street; but it would be unfair. to add, as some people did, that it was a "put-up-job," There was 'too much at stake to allow of any such suggestion.

The conditions were against fine manicouvring. A last ground, a light ball and a gusty wind played havon with the best laid schemes, and the vagaries of the leather would gave broken the heart of a conjurer. But there was displayed energy, a superabundance of koonness, and a tremendous pace, and the result was game that was one of the hardest of the

There was only one team in the first half, -the Celts; they should have been three goals up when they crossed over instead of one. The second half was devoid of extra brilliancy, only quick; severe work, -for most part of the time. As one critic remarks, it was then a "airship to a scap-bubble on the Celtic,"-surely an addition to the already ornate phraseology of football descriptives. Then there came a change, and a hair juining fifteen minutes. The Rangers put on a goal, and drow; the Celts scored inother, and won; the Rangers replied, and drew again. And the whole business is to be refought on caturday.

The position in the League competition is unchanged since my last letter. The Rangers and Cellic are putting on draws, and leaving the table unaltered. Dundee remains at top, and it is almost certain that until the last game, the championship honours will remain undecided, these three teams being a good lead over all others. Among the recent incidents are the third, defeat of the Hearts by the Ardrionians, and the lowering of the Hibs by Aberdeen.

For the fourth time in succession, and the fifth in all, T. Jack, Edinburgh Southern Harriers, won the ten mile S.A.A A. Championship at Ibrox. weather conditions were far from favourable; but the time, strange to say, -54 min. 3 secs., - has only been bettered on, four occasions since 1886, when this fixture was started. A. M'Phoc. Clydosdaje Harriers, made a good second.

At the Melrone Pootball Sports, the Teries"-is it necessary to rumind you that the "Tories" come from Hawick ?had a good win in the "seven-a-side" competition, a novelty in Rugby sports that is the invention of a Borderer, and is now familiar in many other parts of the country. There was also a Marathon Race; the distance was only about five miles, but as Thandsch se expense will be incurred it included a climb to the top of the Middle in hiring suitable p emises and in a ting up Eildon Hill the ordeal was no light one. he winner was Mr John Torrie, the Gala Harriers.

The teams were each composed of three pairs of gentlemen, each of whom played each opposing pair six games either side of the net. In the end the victory went to the L.R.C. by a margin of 20 games, the scores being: -L.R.C., 64 games; Hongkong Club, 44 games. An analysis of the play shows that Carrand Hancock (L.R.C.) where the best pair on the day's results, scoring 25 games to 11 registered against thom. They also secured the distinction of inflicting the heaviset defeat in overcoming Brierley and Satterthwaite by 10 games to 2. The next best record was obtained by Harris and Phelips, who ran up 23 games to 14. The other pair on the winning side, Thompson and Murray, wore down four games as the result of their efforts, only managing to register 16 games out of 38 played. For the Club Pearce and Klimanek were the only couple not to have a greater number of games scored against them than they secured. Out of their 26 games they claimed exactly half. They alone also managed to win a set, defeating Thompson and Murray by 9 games to 3. The other averages were: Brierley and Satterthwaite, 12 games to 24; Anderson and

THE COMMERCIAL DEPRES-SION IN VEPAN.

The commercial depression is reported b have considerably affected the business all the industrial companies in Japan. Consequently there will be a general reduction in the dividends for the past halfyear. According to blic Jupan Times, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha has decided to reduce the rate from 12 per cent to 10 per cent. the Dai Nippon Brewery Co. from 15 per cent to 12 per cent, and the Kanegafuchi Cotton Mill from 14 per cent to 13 per cont. The Nisshin Cotton Mill, though able to declare a dividend of 6 per cent, has docided to declare no dividend for the term, carrying the entire receipts to the next account." The Tokyo Artificial Fertilizor Co, too, is said to have also decided on non-payment of a dividend this term. The other leading companies are reported to have concluded to lessen the rate on account of smaller receipts or in order to make firm their financial basis.

Hongkong Protest Upheld.

The decision is published in the Japanese Official Gazette of the 1st instant, of the Patent Bureau in a protest filed by the 18, Bank Building, Hongkong, against the refusal to register their trade-mark" on cigarettes. The protest was upheld and the refusal to register the mark pronounced

The application of the petitioner comat Noon. on the ground that it resembled a mark already registered under No. 12,003. The potitioners maintained that their trademark represented a beautiful Chinese lantern of conspicuous design with the word "light" printed above, while the trademark already registered represented a tobacco leaf on which the word "light" was printed. The petitioners urged that the two marks were totally different in size and all other respects, and could not possibly be regarded as resembling each other. In giving its docision the Patent Bureau different in appearance. The examiners held that both marks were known by the name of "light" and resembled each other in appellation, but the impression given by the two marks is different—the prominent. feature of the one is a Chinese lantern and the word "light," while that of the other is a tobacco leaf, the rising sun, and the word "light." Thus it is impossib a to call both marks 'Clight," One may be called the "laptern" or "lantern light" brand, and the other the "Hinoda light" or "Sun light," even if the tobacco leaf be ignored. Therefore the two marks cannot be regarded as resembling each other even in appellation. The examiners were consequently wrong in refusing to register the it resembled that registered under No. 12,003. - Japan Chronicle.
